a failed human prototype that she is born and raised as an experiment. Selena's life has been filled with torture, betrayal, and distrust, but one night changes everything. Sold, attacked, and on the run, Selena is picked up by a colony ship struggling to find her place on this ship and trying to understand the draw she feels toward two alien males. Her already uncertain life becomes downright unimaginable when she learns new life is growing inside her. Terrified her captors will find her and take her and her children back to a life of horror and captivity, she must learn to trust her saviors and herself with the help of her two mates. Selena will fight for her freedom or die trying. At 100k words, Project Adapt Found is the first book of a space fantasy alien romance series which will have the FMC travel through the galaxy experiencing new things and meeting multiple aliens along the way. Her collection of alien mates will grow throughout the series. Her aliens look like aliens; there will be steamy scenes between the human heroine and her very alien heroes. If this offends you, then this may not be your cup of tea. Intended for mature audiences.

In a world filled with hatred for anyone different, a little odd, or just plain weird, there are two people who tower above most. They are different because they have more than just their own souls; they have the souls of an alien in each of them. But why? Kor was sent for a punishment, and Vortex followed because she believed it was wrong. Now, inside two people, Keith and Danielle, they were found out. Everyone who was a little more different than the rest were found. Now they have to endure punishment that was more than anticipated while playing the waiting game and hoping that someone has heard their cries for help. Will they survive and make it back to their planet, or will they fall?

Freed from ages of imprisonment in the diadem, an alien artifact, Shadith discovers that she has the power to transfer her consciousness into any living creature, a talent that she uses to try to destroy a syndicate that creates civil wars as a tourist attraction. Original.

Satyajit Ray was a master of science fiction writing through his Professor Shonku stories and other fiction and non-fiction pieces. He explored the genre from various angles. In the 1960s, Ray wrote a screenplay for what would have been the first of its kind sci-fi film to be made in India. It was called The Alien and was based on his own short story Bonkubabur Bandhu. On being prompted by Arthur C. Clarke, who found the screenplay promising, Ray sent the script to Columbia Pictures in Hollywood, who agreed to back it, and Peter Sellers was approached to play a prominent role. Then started the ordeals of The Alien as Ray calls it. Even after a series of trips to the US, UK, and France, the film was never made. And more shockingly, some fifteen years later, Ray watched Steven Spielberg's film Close Encounters of the Third Kind and later E.T. the Extra-Terrestrial and realized these bore uncanny resemblances to his script The Alien, including the way E.T. was designed, a slice of hitherto undocumented cinema history travails with the alien includes ray s detailed essay on the project with the full script of the alien as well as the original short story on which the screenplay was based these presented alongside correspondence between ray and peter sellers arthur c clarke marlon brando hollywood producers who showed interest and a fascinating essay by the young student at columbia university s graduate school of journalism who broke the spielberg story make this book a rare and compelling read on science fiction cinema and the art of adaptation
